OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- PUBLIC CHARGE. – We are not lawyers and therefore cannot give legal advice. However, the lawyers we have spoken to say it is unlikely that emergency cash assistance will have an impact on any immigration applications.
- CONFIDENTIALITY. – Your application information will only be shared with the lawyers making the eligibility determinations for the Oregon Worker Relief Fund. Thirty days after processing your application, they will erase your personal information and identification document from their files. However, the law requires that they maintain a list with applicant's name, address and the amount of assistance awarded.
- This emergency cash assistance is not taxable.

Once LCA receives your completed application and necessary documents, we will process it on a first come first served basis. It will take up to five business days to process your application. Depending on the payment option you choose, it will take between 5 and 14 days to receive your payment. You will be contacted by phone or text and informed whether your application has been approved or denied and, if approved, when you can expect payment.
